

The elite eight

What does it take to win consecutive Super Bowl championships? Here are the regular-season statistics of the eight teams that have done it:

► 1966, '67 Packers

Coach: Vince Lombardi.

Notable players:

QB Bart Starr, CB Herb Adderley, DE Willie Davis.

Record	21-6-1
Yards per game	305.5
Yards allowed/game	246.5
Points per game	23.8
Pass YPG	177.3
Rush YPG	128.1

► '72, '73 Dolphins

Coach: Don Shula.

Notable players:

QB Bob Griese, RB Mercury Morris, FB Larry Csonka.

Record	26-2
Yards per game	326.4
Yards allowed/game	234.9
Points per game	26
Pass YPG	130.6
Rush YPG	195.7

► '74, '75 Steelers

Coach: Chuck Noll.

Notable players:

RB Franco Harris, DE Joe Greene, LB Jack Ham.

Record	22-5-1
Yards per game	330.8
Yards allowed/game	240.5
Points per game	24.2
Pass YPG	150.4
Rush YPG	180.3

► '78, '79 Steelers

Coach: Chuck Noll.

Notable players:

QB Terry Bradshaw, WR Lynn Swann, LB Jack Lambert.

Record	26-6
Yards per game	351.6
Yards allowed/game	263.7
Points per game	24.1
Pass YPG	198.6
Rush YPG	153.1

► '88, '89 49ers

Coach: Bill Walsh.

Notable players:

QB Joe Montana, WR Jerry Rice, S Ronnie Lott.

Record	24-8
Yards per game	380.3
Yards allowed/game	287.2
Points per game	25.3
Pass YPG	240.0
Rush YPG	140.3

► '92, '93 Cowboys

Coach: Jimmy Johnson.

Notable players:

QB Troy Aikman, RB Emmitt Smith, WR Michael Irvin.

Record	25-7
Yards per game	350.6
Yards allowed/game	271.8
Points per game	24.5
Pass YPG	216.8
Rush YPG	133.8

► '97, '98 Broncos

Coach: Mike Shanahan.

Notable players:

QB John Elway, RB Terrell Davis, TE Shannon Sharpe.

Record	26-6
Yards per game	373.9
Yards allowed/game	295.3
Points per game	30.4
Pass YPG	222.4
Rush YPG	151.4

► 2003, '04 Patriots

Coach: Bill Belichick.

Notable players:

QB Tom Brady, DT Richard Seymour, CB Ty Law.

Record	28-4
Yards per game	336.2
Yards allowed/game	301.2
Points per game	24.5
Pass YPG	219.4
Rush YPG	116.9