

FAREWELL, NEIGHBOR

A TRIBUTE TO THE LIFE OF FRED ROGERS, 1928-2003

Daniel Marsula/Post-Gazette

STORY BY SALLY KALSON

All over the country yesterday, grown children were getting calls from their parents with the sad news that Fred Rogers had died. Together they commiserated over the loss of the great good friend they used to watch together in a neighborhood that knew no boundaries and drew no distinctions.

CONTINUED ON PAGE B-6

INSIDE

HIS 'CHILDREN' REACT
B-2

'A GENTLE SOUL'
B-3

TERESA HEINZ REMEMBERS
B-3

FRED ROGERS TIMELINE
B-4, 5