

Feeling shortchanged

After taking to heart a gubernatorial commission's recommendation that it reform its finances in return for increased state aid, the Port Authority has not seen an increase. Its funding has been flat for five years, while statewide, Act 44 has not come close to delivering the recommended level of funding for public transit systems.

State aid to Port Authority

Changes in funding levels since Act 44 passage

Act 44 falls short

*Pre-Act 44

**Pa. Transportation Funding and Reform Commission 2006